Sheikh Ghufuran Rashid

Managing Director

I have been bestowed with a legacy of more than three decades and confident to steer this group onwards and upwards. I feel responsible for sustaining the current organization and duty to increase its share in market along with keeping the original values and standards of group intact with our culture.

Since 1989, RBS Brothers has been leading in exporting blue color manpower around the globe and has partnered with GCC and other employers to provide authentic, tested and reliable workforce to fulfill their manpower requirements. We are fully equipped with all kind of manpower requirement from sourcing through our nationwide network, testing skills in our own trade testing center and managing all processes related to manpower export. RBS Brothers seeks to forge new alliances and build long-term relationships with international employers for their skilled, semi-skilled and non-skilled manpower requirements.

Under the experienced vision, my biggest aim and challenge is to diversify this group by adding multiple business verticals. During last five years, I successfully diversified our CNG Station into Petrol pump and was able to initiate new ventures under group umbrella. Strengthening each business in conglomeration and adding more is next step for me. I believe it's the right time to grow and contribute not only to market but community as well. Next years will be full of challenges and I aim to keep on moving forward with stronger resolve.
